

Merger, Acquisition and Change... oh my.

Revolve Business Consulting Can Help.

Bringing teams together can be tricky business. Mergers and acquisitions complicate our lives in the short term, as we sort everything and everyone out. Worse, in the long term they can prove to be a huge lag on productivity, service and teamwork. Uncontrolled, mergers can result in inefficiencies and unnecessary costs.

Avoid:

- Accountability Confusion
- Redundant Activities
- Duplication of Documents
- Neglected Clients
- Unclear Skills Inventory
- Abandoned Projects
- Loss of Star Performers
- Harmful Office Politics
